COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

A law was passed by the last Legislature to give relief to the elderly for increased taxes.

To be eligible a man must be 65, or a woman 62 years old and the head of the household. The person requesting the waiver must be a resident of the State at least 10 years and have an income of less than $4,000 per year, if married the combined income can not be more than $4,000 per year.

There are many more requirements for entitlement. Further information is available at the Town Office.

If one desires to request and is granted a waiver a lien is placed on the property for any increase over the amount now paid. This lien will have to be paid on the demise of the owners. The only difference between these liens and the ones we place against delinquent taxpayers is, the lien on the property of the elderly cannot be enforced until these people are gone and the estate settled.

PLANNING MEETING FOR "LIVING NATIVITY SCENE" TO BE HELD THURSDAY, DEC. 4

It's Thanksgiving time, and as in the past several years, Bethel townspeople start thinking about their "Living Nativity Scene". Interested citizens have scheduled a planning meeting to be held on Thursday, December 4, from 7:30 p. m. to 8:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Farrar, Spring Street. Anyone in the area who would like to share in any way in preparation for this "community Christmas gift" is welcome to drop in at the meeting and leave their names. The date of the Pageant has always been set aside as the Sunday before Christmas, or December 21 this year.

Now a Christmas tradition for Bethel people, this "Living Nativity Scene", was first presented six years ago. Each year added to the efficiency of organization. All plans are in writing, the costumes, and other items, are neatly packed and ready for use. And in this era of naturally bearded gentlemen, it is hoped that this year's Shepherds and Wise Men will grow their own for the pageant.

Volunteers will be needed in many areas and among them a pageant chairman, a director, and 12 sub-chairmen. This will assure that preparations will be equalized and efficient. In addition, volunteers will be needed to assist these various committee chairmen. Duties are as follows: The chairman coordinates the work of all sub-committee chairmen; the director is responsible for the action and direction of the pageant; Sub-committee chairmen make arrangements for the following: (1) Traffic control, snow removal, and general lighting; (2) Special lighting and sound; (3) Stable, choir shell, roping off area, and crowd control; (4) Acquiring of animals and their transportation and hay; (5) Decorated Christmas trees, refreshments between scenes for cast, bows, figures of Holy Family for display after pageant; (6) Costume chairman and seven assistants; (7) Make-up chairman and seven assistants; (8) Props; (9) Choir. Mrs. Betty Tibbels will serve as director but needs a chairman who will arrange rehearsals, notify participants, and coordinate clothing. And carolers are needed! (10) Telephone caller; (11) Clean-up after the pageant; (12) Supper for cast and workers after the pageant.

All churches in the area are asked to name one representative to attend the meeting who will assist in selecting members of the pageant cast from their respective churches.

It is hoped that the various civic organizations will be willing to donate their talents again this year. In many cases listed above, the sub-committee chairmen would only have to coordinate with these organizations.

GREENWOOD CITY

Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres.
This forenoon the fleeting glimpse of the blue jay with his gay plumage brought brightness to the gray and misty landscape.

Prayed by the winds and bedraggled by the rains the grasses nodded from the shore line.

A few hours later an influx of light filled my room. I looked out where the cold gray had been, to the transparent pond calm full of hope. I went out to hear everywhere running water and to see pools.

Sanborn River gave a thunderous roar as it cascaded to the pond.

I walked down to look for the falls across Big Pond which I visited with Boat last summer. They are seen from this side only when the water is high.

Now the sun for a few moments came filtering through like a halo on the white and boiling water. Step by step and leap by leap it plummeted into the narrow gateway between the rocks then sped out of sight, adding its bit to the pond.

November gives us "bleakness, sunshine, and Thanksgiving. So with that Day near and in view of world conditions it is a good thing for all of us to stop and count our simple blessings — a church where one may worship unafraid, among his neighbors, a home, happy children and good food; a job in which we may rise as high as our ability warrants.

Thanksgiving is for memory of the Pilgrims, Plymouth and the customs fashioned there.

They went about their tasks with given thanks for a chance to labor. They knew that the long winter was close but were thankful for their harvest which would carry them through until spring.

Our homes have been built upon the land these dreamers found, worked, and knew would last.

They watched, as we do, a quiet lake where ripples softly run to meet the moonlight. They knew the pine-scented silence of the forest, when the wind is still. They knew the soundless sweep of snow. These were for them and are for us, wordless moments; touching something precious tucked away in every heart — a something called contentment, peace. It is an everyday contentment deep inside, relative to that feeling of moonlight, and forest, and snow, which comes to those who keep their steps upon the footpath of peace.

"They laid the foundation of a state wherein every man through countless ages should have liberty." Their example should inspire us to do our part in spreading lofty ideal throughout our America.

Now I wish you a happy Thanksgiving, with clear skies and all you most love near you, plenty of the all America bird, tasty with stuffing; our symbol of this Day, Long may he gobble!

Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt were in Lewiston on Saturday.

What does Thanksgiving mean to you? Is your love for the "festive board" so great that you fail to remember the real meaning of "Thanksgiving"?

As we celebrate this joyous occasion let's take time to remember and give thanks for our freedoms which are our heritage in America. We might sum them in these four freedoms:

1. The right to speak freely and proclaim our inner convictions in the open, without fear.

2. The right to speak with God - your God - so your heart dictates.

3. The right to work and enjoy the fruits of our labors through individual effort and initiative.

4. The liberty to move across the land, without the threat of bombs or the encounter with barred borders.

To these we would add the opportunities that are ours to grow in knowledge, that stretches out even into space.

Boys may shout in the streets of the shortcomings of this land, they may tear at the bulwarks of learning which set the foundation of our nation. But their burning and shouting and tearing can never build a land of peace and plenty as that for which we give thanks on this Thanksgiving Day.

Born Dec. 12, 1905 in Andover, Mr. French was the son of Fred C. and Nellie Morton French. He was an Army veteran of World War II. He attended local schools, graduating from Andover High School. He was a graduate of Cooper Union Art School. He was appointed Andover postmaster on July 14, 1947, where he had served for more than 22 years. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Once again death has entered our ranks and taken from our midst, Brother Roy G. Wardwell, a faithful and respected member and worker of our order for seventy two years and while we mourn the loss of a loyal and beloved member, we are rejoiced at his freedom from suffering and his entrance into a higher life where sickness and sorrow are no more.

Therefore be it resolved: Round Mt. Grange extend to the bereaved family and other relatives of our brother our heartfelt sympathy and we point them to our Heavenly Father for comfort in this hour of sorrow.

Resolved: That a copy be sent to the family of our brother and one be sent to the Oxford County Citizen for publication and our Charter be draped for thirty days.

There's an open gate
At the end of the road
Through which each must go alone,
And there is a light which we can not see.

God does claim His own.
Beyond the gate our brother went
To find happiness and rest.
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.
